9. Detailed description of the event:

Department of Economics organized the inaugural ceremony of Economics Association on 22-09-2017. Dr. Cibi Komalan, Principal of the College inaugurated the function. Chief Guest of the programme was the General Secretary of Kerala Economic Association and retired professor of Christ College Dr. E.M Thomas.

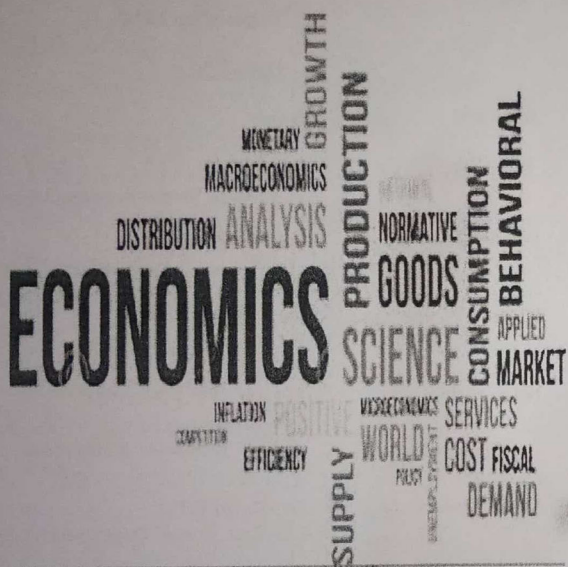

In connection with the inaugural ceremony, we organized a seminar on “Decentralized Planning in Kerala- An Evaluation”. Dr. E.M Thomas, who has done much research in this field made key note address on this topic. He explained how the decentralised planning in Kerala is unique from those practiced in other states. The ultimate aim of it is to give opportunity for direct participation of people in local governance. In Kerala, decentralisation of planning has been used as a method to ensure a transparent and participatory development process.

10. Outcome of the event/Evaluation by Program Coordinator:

- Resource person described different examples to make students understand how people in Kerala can effectively participate in making their village an ideal one.
- Students understood the significance of attending gramasabha in their wards

“DECENTRALISED PLANNING IN KERALA – AN EVALUATION”

by

Dr. E.M THOMAS

(General Secretary,

Kerala Economic Association)

Dear Friends,

The Department of Economics, S.N.M College Maliankara has immense pleasure to inform you about the Inauguration of the Economics Association and its activities for the academic year 2017-2018 on 22nd September 2017.

In connection with the inaugural ceremony, we have organized a seminar on "Decentralised Planning in Kerala- An Evaluation". Dr. E.M Thomas, General Secretary, Kerala Economic Association, is the resource person.

The Kerala Model of development planning has so many features. The ultimate aim of decentralised planning is to give opportunity for direct participation of people in local governance. In Kerala, decentralisation of planning has been used as a method to ensure a transparent and participatory development process. This seminar is an attempt to assess the pros and cons of decentralized planning experience in Kerala.

With pleasure, we invite your esteemed presence and cooperation in this endeavor of the Department of Economics.

Thanking You,

Vipin K.D
Staff Convener

Dr. S.P Sudheer
