The class was conducted in CB305 at 1.30 p.m. Mr. Varkeychan P. Menachery (Counselor and Director, Prathyasa Counseling Center) was the resource person. He discussed various aspects of women's life in this generation. He also quoted some real life incidents where women are brutally cheated. He insisted that due care must be taken by girls themselves for being safe like careful in dressing, mingling with boys and some general discipline to be followed. The counselor could share his experience too, because he faced many girls during his counseling with the worst stories. The class really helped the students to be more vigilant and careful in taking care of themselves.
- 10. Outcome of the event/Evaluation by Program Coordinator: Empowered girls to improve their self confidence and created awareness among them about gender socialization and sexuality.
