8.Objective of the Programme: To give awareness on human rights.

The department of English organised an invited talk on Human Rights on 30/11/ 2022 as part of the observation of the Human rights week. The talk organised for the under graduate students of the department was led by Advocate Sukesan P S (retired SO, CUSAT). The resource person briefed the provision of human rights in Indian Constitution and the United Nations. The session was very relevant and effective.

9.Outcome of the Event

The session proved to be effective for the students as it enlightened them about human rights and Indian constitution. It provided them an awareness on the legal framework of human rights and its legal applications. The session was an additional support for the final year students. The session also developed the consciousness of being responsible citizens to the young generation.
