- 8. Objective of the Programme : Provide comfort and support to individuals in palliative care by donating dresses and other essential items, enhancing their well-being and dignity during difficult moments of their life
- 9. Detailed description of the event: Under the leadership of the NSS unit of SNM College Maliankara, the indigent bed patients under the palliative care of Vadakkekara Grama Panchayat were given SNEHA SAMMANAM on the occasion of Vishu Day. Principal Dr. Jitha T. H Inaugrated the function. Volunteers had collected various essential items for the bed ridden patients. This included shirt, Linki, bed sheets, nighty, towel, toothpaste, brush, soap, etc. NSS Program Officers Dr V C Resmi and Shri K D Vipin handed over these materials to Shri. Saneesh, the Block Panchayath Vice President and Palliative unit Staff Coordinator Mrs. Liji. NSS Volunteer Secretary Shahir Muhammad, Gokul Krishna MG and Anujith K S coordinated the programme very much efficiently.
- 10. Outcome of the event/Evaluation by Program Coordinator:

Students in the college got an opportunity to be a part of a social welfare programme. They could give a great use for some amount of money which they otherwise would have spent on unnecessary things. Some very poor patients under palliative care got some essential goods which they were lacking and struggling to get.
