8. Objective of the Program : This program is intended to provide mental delight to the academic and administrative faculties of our college .

9. Detailed description of the event: This program is thoughtfully designed with the aim of bringing mental delight and enrichment to the dedicated academic and administrative faculties of our college. Through engaging and stimulating activities, we seek to nurture their intellectual and emotional well-being. By fostering a positive and inspiring environment, we aim to energize their minds and enhance their overall job satisfaction, ultimately contributing to a thriving educational community.

10. Outcome of the event/Evaluation by Program Coordinator: To reduce the workload of teaching and non-teaching staff and to foster a happy environment. The program became a novelty. So it was possible to express and encourage their various talents. Helped to make teaching fun and able to raise the standard of teaching.
