4. Date: 2/10/2020
5. Number of Participants: 49 NSS Volunteers
6. Venue: Volunteer House
7. Resource Person(s): Nil
8. Objective of the Program: To inspire and engage NSS volunteers in embodying the principles of cleanliness, personal responsibility, environmental sustainability, and community service, all of which are aligned with the teachings and ideals of Mahatma Gandhi.

9. Detailed Description of the Event:

On the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti, all 50 NSS volunteers from SNM College Maliankara enthusiastically participated in a cleaning activity focused on their own houses and surroundings. The volunteers cleaned their homes and collected plastic materials, symbolizing their commitment to cleanliness and environmental responsibility. NSS Programme Officers, Dr. Resmi V C, and Sri. Vipin K D, had given necessary guidelines to the volunteers for undertaking this cleaning initiative. Some of the volunteers extended their efforts beyond their own homes and cleaned public places, further contributing to the cleanliness of the community. Following the cleaning work, the programme officers conducted a virtual session with the volunteers to reflect on the importance of cleanliness in daily life. They emphasized how cleanliness not only contributes to a healthier environment but also aligns with Gandhi's vision of a better society. The activity aimed to emphasize the connection between cleanliness, hygiene, and overall well-being, reinforcing the significance of maintaining a clean environment in our daily lives.

10. Outcome of the Event/Evaluation by Program Coordinator:

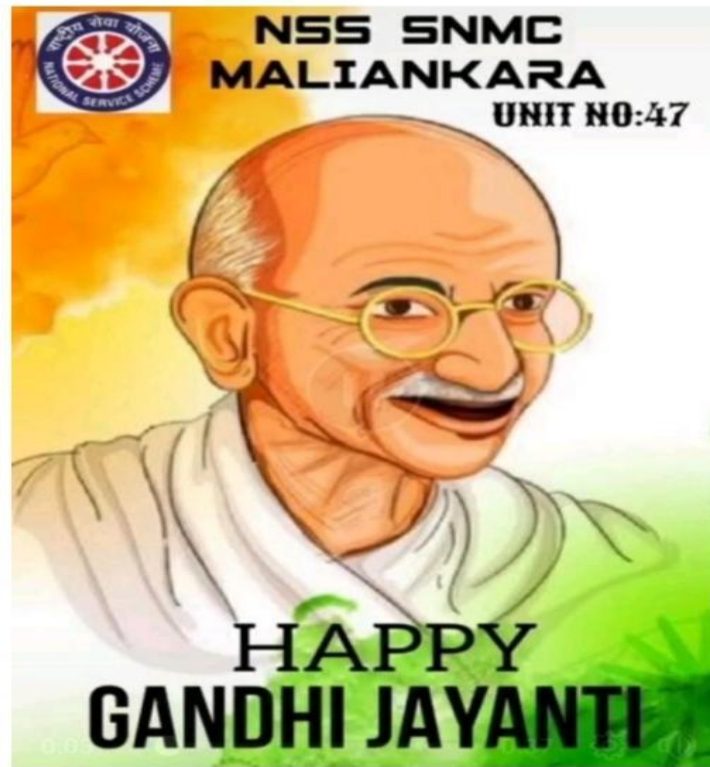

The activity effectively propagated the teachings and ideals of Mahatma Gandhi, encouraging volunteers to embody principles of cleanliness, personal responsibility, and community service. The program reinforced the importance of cleanliness and hygiene in daily life, linking it to overall well-being. The event served as a fitting tribute to Mahatma Gandhi on his birth anniversary, promoting his vision of a cleaner, healthier, and more sustainable society. The active participation and dedication of NSS volunteers were pivotal in achieving the program's goals and furthering the values of community service.
