9. Detailed description of the event: On 25th November 2021, the Gender Equality Forum at SNM College, Maliankara, observed the UN International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women. The event served as a platform to make students aware about violations against women as well as human rights under the theme "Orange the World: End Violence against Women. The highlight of the observance was an interdepartmental collage competition organized by the Gender Equality Forum. Participants from various departments presented their artistic skills and passion for advocating gender equality through collages. As part of the observance, the staff and students of SNM College participated in the "Orange the World" movement. On this day, they wore orange dresses to show their support for ending violence against women. It served as a representation of the college community's commitment in promoting a violence-free world for women.
