Objective of the Programme: To enlighten the faculty, research scholars and students on intellectual property rights.

IPR Cell under the guidance of IQAC and IIC, SNM College, Maliankara organised an online awareness programme on Intellectual Property Rights and patents under National IP Awareness Mission (NIPAM) on 12/12/2022. Ms Anjana Haridas, Examiner of Patents and Designs, Indian Patent Office, Chennai handled the session. The session proved to be significant as Intellectual Property Rights awareness is vital in innovations or ideas generated within an individual. The research scholars, PG students and the faculty of SNM College joined the awareness program. The audience actively interacted with the resource person and it proved to be an effective session for the upcoming inventors. E-certificates were distributed for the participants. The institution was awarded the certificate of appreciation for organizing the event.

Outcome of the Event

The topic was well presented before the audience by the resource person. She elaborated on the legal framework of Intellectual Property Rights and its crucial role in innovation and entrepreneurship. The sessions were very useful for the research scholars, PG students and the teaching faculty as it opened new knowledge on IPR and its framework.
