8. Objective of the Program : The objective of this event was to help the people who were affected by the 2019 floods in Kerala, especially in Nilambur. NSS SNM College Maliankara's dedicated volunteers aimed to clean up the affected areas, provide essential household items to families who lost everything, and assist in the recovery efforts. The event's main goal was to offer immediate aid and support to the flood victims while also showing the spirit of unity and community involvement among the college students and teachers.

9. Detailed description of the event:

In 2019, Kerala faced devastating floods, particularly hitting the Nilambur region in Malabar the hardest. Responding to this crisis, NSS SNM College Maliankara's dedicated volunteers took part in a crucial cleanup and aid mission to assist the flood-affected people. Our volunteers journeyed to Nilambur together in a bus, with Mr. Bijil Kumar, the HMDP Saba Secretary, flagging off the journey. To provide relief to families who had lost everything in the flood, our volunteers purchased essential home items. The funds for these supplies were collected from generous contributions made by our students and teachers. When we reached Nilambur, we witnessed the harsh reality of the flood's aftermath. The roads were gone, and the houses were filled with mud, making them unfit for living.

To make our efforts more effective, students formed different groups, each with a specific task. Some used tools, while others employed sacks to clear the thick layers of mud from
