5. Number of participants: 90
6. Venue: Seminar Hall, S.N. M. College, Maliankara
7. Resource Person : Adv. N.S. Ajay, Taluk Legal service Committee
8. Objective of the Program :

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics at S.N. M. College, Maliankara organized a talk on Human Rights for the final year undergraduate students. The objective of the event was to enhance the students' understanding of human rights, particularly focusing on Article 33, Fundamental Rights, rights for children and women, and the misuse of mobile phones. The talk aimed to raise awareness and foster a sense of social responsibility among the students.

9. Detailed description of the event:

Opening Prayer:

The program commenced at 1.30 PM with a prayer by Ms. Sreelakshmi Dileepkumar, a second-year undergraduate student from the Department of Mathematics and Statistics.

Welcome Address:

Ms. Gopika T. G., the Secretary of the Mathematics Association, welcomed all the attendees to the program, expressing gratitude for their presence and participation.

Presidential Address:

Dr. C.M. Sreejith, the principal of S.N. M. College, Maliankara, delivered the presidential address. He emphasized the importance of human rights in society and their relevance to the students' lives. Dr. Sreejith also released the manuscript, which served as a guide for the talk.

Talk by the Resource Person:

Adv. N.S. Ajay, representing the Taluk Legal Service Committee, served as the resource person for the talk. He discussed various topics related to human rights, including Article 33, Fundamental Rights, rights for children and women, and the misuse of mobile phones. His informative and engaging presentation provided valuable insights into these areas, promoting a better understanding of the subject matter among the students.

10. Outcome of the event/Evaluation by Program Coordinator:

The talk on Human Rights proved to be highly informative and enlightening for all the students.

The objective of raising awareness and fostering a sense of social responsibility was successfully achieved. The students gained a deeper understanding of the significance of human rights, particularly in relation to the rights of children and women, as well as the potential risks associated with the misuse of mobile phones.

The talk facilitated discussions and encouraged the students to think critically about human rights issues. It empowered them to become advocates for human rights and agents of positive change in society. The event provided a platform for students to engage in meaningful dialogue, promoting a greater understanding of the importance of upholding and protecting human rights.
