9. Detailed description of the event:

The Department of Economics took the initiative to conduct an inter-departmental Quiz competition related to the United Nations Day on October 18th, 2023. This competition helps to engage people in learning more about the UN's work, its member states, and global issues. This quiz competition covers a wide range of topics, including international relations, human rights, sustainable development goals, and current affairs.

Around 24 students and the teaching staff actively engaged in this programme. The competition saw enthusiastic participation from the students of various departments. The teams showcased their knowledge on a diverse range of topics related to the United Nations.

10. Outcome of the event/Evaluation by Program Coordinator: The program was well organized and the students from various departments participated in this quiz program. Students got an opportunity to listen to different questions pertaining to global issues, the work of the United Nations, and the challenges facing the world. These competitions help students to become more aware of international affairs and global concerns. The inter-departmental UN Day Quiz Competition winners are:
