8. Objective of the Programme:

- a. Promoting Reading Culture: Encourage students to engage with literature and develop a habit of reading beyond academic requirements.
- b. Enhancing Literary Appreciation: Provide students with an opportunity to explore and discuss diverse literary works, thereby fostering a deeper appreciation for literature.
- c. Intellectual Exchange: Create a platform for intellectual exchange and dialogue among students, allowing them to share insights, interpretations, and reflections on the books they have read.
- d. Encouraging Critical Thinking: Stimulate critical thinking skills by analyzing themes, characters, and literary techniques employed by authors.
- e. Cultural Enrichment: Promote cultural enrichment by exposing students to literature from different genres, regions, and time periods.

9. Detailed description of the event:

- a. Venue and Date : The event takes place at OB 5, SNM College, on June 20. OB 5 is arranged to accommodate participants comfortably for the book talk session.
- b. Book Selection and Preparation : The Malayalam Department selects a variety of books across different genres and authors to cater to diverse interests and preferences . Participants are encouraged to read at least one book from the selection before the event .
- c. Introduction and Welcome : The event begins with a brief introduction by the organizers, welcoming students and outlining the agenda for the book talk.
- d. Book Presentations : Faculty members or invited guests introduce selected books, providing background information about the author, context, and themes . Participants share their impressions, favorite passages, and overall reactions to the books they have read.

- e. Discussion and Interaction : A moderated discussion ensues, where students have the opportunity to ask questions, express opinions, and engage in dialogue with peers and presenters . Discussions may focus on literary analysis, character development, plot structure, symbolism, and socio-cultural implications.
- f. Interactive Activities : Interactive activities such as role-playing, dramatization of scenes, or group discussions may be incorporated to enhance engagement and participation.
- g. Conclusion and Reflection : The event concludes with a reflection session where participants share key takeaways, insights gained, and personal reflections on the books discussed. Organizers express gratitude to participants for their active participation and contribution to the event.

10. Outcome of the event/Evaluation by Program Coordinator:

- a. Increased Engagement with Literature: Participants develop a deeper interest in reading and exploring diverse literary works beyond their academic curriculum.
- b. Enhanced Critical Thinking Skills: Students sharpen their critical thinking skills through thoughtful analysis and discussion of literary themes and elements.
- c. Cultural and Literary Enrichment: Participants gain exposure to a variety of literary genres, authors, and cultural perspectives, enriching their understanding of literature and society.
- d. Fostering Intellectual Dialogue: The event fosters a culture of intellectual dialogue and exchange among students, promoting a vibrant literary community within SNM College.
- e. Encouraging Continued Reading Habits: The book talk serves as a catalyst for continued reading habits and ongoing exploration of literature among students beyond the event.
