8. Objective of the Programme:

The objectives of the Malayalam Department's Malayanma Association Inauguration and Seminar on the topic "Sahityapadanavum Linganeethiyum" are likely to include:

1. Promotion of Malayalam Language*: To foster appreciation and understanding of the Malayalam language among students and enthusiasts.

2. Exploration of Literary and Cultural Themes*: To delve into the intersections between literature and gender ethics, exploring how literary works reflect and shape societal attitudes towards gender.

3. Academic Enrichment*: To provide students with an academic platform for discussing and analyzing literary and ethical concepts related to Malayalam literature and gender dynamics.

4. Engagement with Contemporary Issues*: To address contemporary issues related to gender representation, stereotypes, and empowerment as depicted in Malayalam literature.

5. Networking and Community Building*: To establish the Malayanma Association as a forum for networking, collaboration, and community building among students, faculty, and enthusiasts interested in Malayalam language and literature.

6. Professional Development*: To offer insights and perspectives from Dr. G Usha Kumari, an experienced academician and HOD, to inspire and guide students in their academic and professional pursuits within the realm of Malayalam literature and gender studies.

9. Detailed description of the event: The programme commenced with a prayer led by Ms. Neethu, followed by a warm welcome by Mrs. Sreeja P R, Head of the Malayalam Department. Dr. Jitha T H, the Principal, delivered the presidential address, setting the tone for the event. Dr. G. Ushakumari, a distinguished academician, inaugurated the seminar after lighting the lamp, symbolizing the commencement of the proceedings. Dr. K K Krishnakumar, in his felicitation, acknowledged the significance of the event and the contributions of the Malayalam Department. A special moment was dedicated to the Manuscript presentation of "Uppu," a noteworthy publication of the Malayalam Department, graced by the presence of the Resource Person and the Principal. An editorial reading by Anjana M A added literary flavor to the programme. The seminar commenced post the inaugural ceremony, diving into the discourse on "Sahityapadanavum Linganeethiyum," exploring literary and ethical dimensions. A special session was organized to celebrate the achievement of students Jose & Naveen for clearing the UGC NET Exam, underscoring academic excellence and dedication within the department.

This detailed programme outline encapsulates the essence of the Malayanma Association Inauguration and Seminar, reflecting the department's commitment to scholarly pursuits and academic achievements.

10. Outcome of the event/Evaluation by Program Coordinator:

The outcome of the Malayanma Association Inauguration and Seminar held at SNM College Maliankara on June 23, 2023, is likely to be multifaceted:

The event likely increased awareness and appreciation of Malayalam literature and cultural themes among participants, fostering a deeper understanding of the intersection between literature and gender ethics. Students and faculty engaged in scholarly discussions and analyses of literary and ethical concepts related to Malayalam literature and gender dynamics, contributing to academic enrichment within the department. The seminar likely served as a platform for networking and community building among students, faculty, and enthusiasts interested in Malayalam language and literature, fostering a sense of belonging and collaboration. Dr. G. Ushakumari's insights and perspectives, along with the recognition of student achievements, likely inspired and motivated participants in their academic and professional pursuits within the realm of Malayalam literature and gender studies. The presentation of Manuscript work "Uppu," a publication from the Malayalam Department, highlighted the department's scholarly contributions and recognized the efforts of contributors, enhancing the department's reputation and visibility. The special session congratulating students Jose Mathew P M & Naveen K G for clearing the UGC NET Exam celebrated academic excellence and served as a testament to the department's commitment to supporting student success and achievement.

Overall, the programme likely facilitated knowledge exchange, academic growth, and community engagement within the Malayalam Department, contributing to the advancement of Malayalam language and literature studies at SNM College Maliankara.
